11. HEY, BIG SPENDERS

Flash these plastic status symbols and impress even the most jaded members of your set. The Marquis Jet Card comes loaded with at least twenty-five hours of flight time aboard a range of planes (from $119,900; marquisjet.com). Call ten hours in advance and you can drive right onto the tarmac and be in Paris by dinner. When you get there, your American Express Centurion Card concierge will secure you a suite at any hotel or a table at any top restaurant. To qualify for membership, you must spend more than $250,000 a year with any AmEx card—and be invited into this exclusive club.
